New Michigan State Record Musky caught Up North in 2012!

A new state record musky was caught in late 2012 on Lake Bellaire in the northern lower peninsula. This lake is part of the same chain of lakes as Torch Lake, where the last state record musky was caught a few years back. The previous state record was over 56" long and weighted 50.5 lbs. The new state record was 59 inches long and weighed 58 lbs.!!!. It was caught by a trio of bass fisherman on a live minnow. It took over 2 hours to get it onto the boat and broke two nets in the process. Quite a fish!

New Michigan DNR Musky Regulations

Effective in 2013, the Michigan DNR has adopted new musky regulations for the state of Michigan. The new musky regulations change the rules from possessing one legal musky per day to possessing one legal musky per year. In addition, each fisherman will be able to procure a free possession tag for their one musky per year when they purchase their fishing license. This new regulation is aimed at continuing to improve the musky fishery in Michigan.
